Plains Power newsletter

We're not going to bombard your inbox but want to keep you updated with any relevant news including offerings, community sponsorship and important market news.

There's also compliance that we need to cover off for regulatory purposes which we'll include when we need to update you on this.

Costs aren't hidden in obscure service & admin fees!

Upcoming notices

It's that time of year when Networks across the country revise their network prices. These prices are due to be rolled out on 1 April 2019 and we'll be sending you an email in the next few weeks to outline the details of this price increase.

We stress the point that this isn't Plains Power increasing their power prices, this is a network price increase which we pass through at cost, with no margin added.
